

SES COLLEGE SREEKANDAPURAM

Curricular FeedbackReport 2018-19

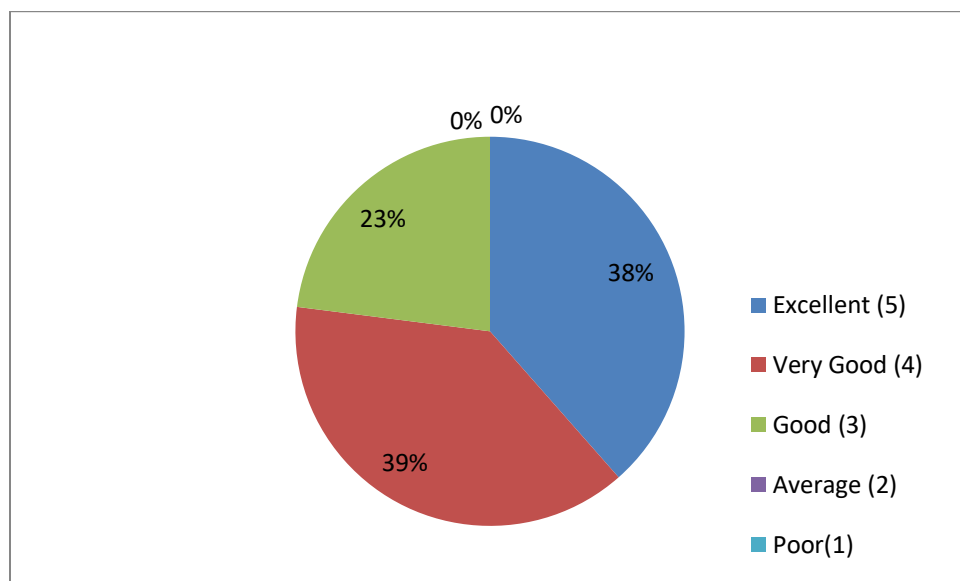

Curricular Evaluation

Our college adheres to the curriculum offered by the Kannur University for its various programmes. The college through its efforts, strives for effective implementation of the curriculum. The curriculum is subject to evaluation by various stakeholders viz., students, staff, alumni and parents. The inputs from the evaluation are analysed and the feedback report is submitted via Staff council of the College to the Principal for integrating changes during the next curriculum revision. The faculties submit their feedback and suggestions based on their findings during evaluation and curriculum restructuring workshops.

The feedback provided by various stakeholders are listed below.

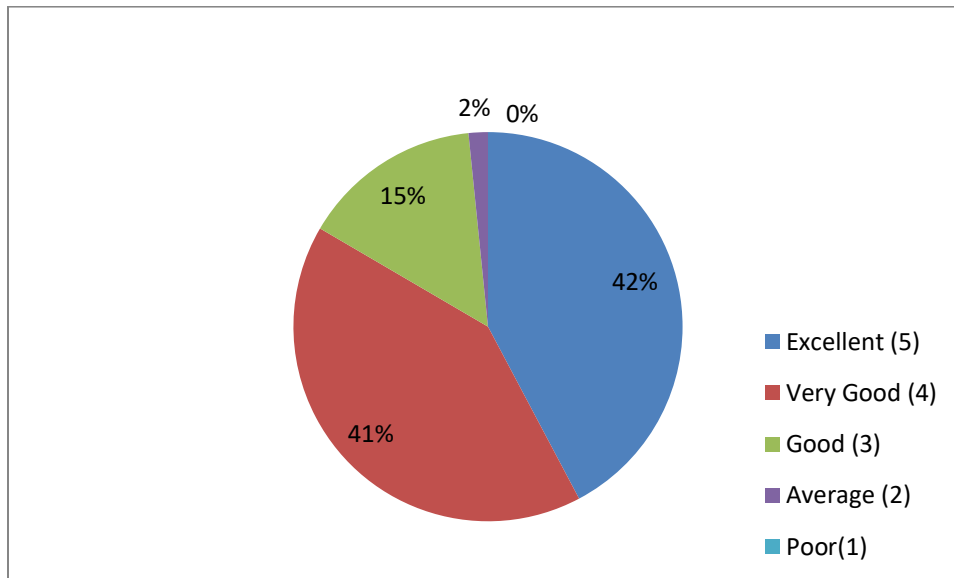

Curricular Evaluation by Students

1.Response of students regarding the curriculum in enhancing competencies of the students.

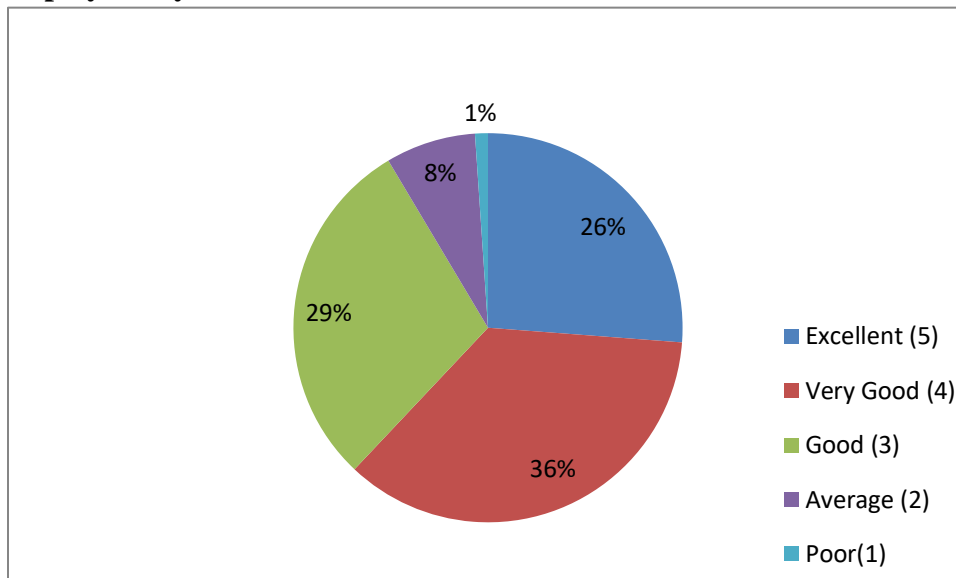

Interpretation: 38% of the students believe that the curriculum is excellent in enhancing their competencies, 39% believe that the curriculum is very good , and rest 23% believe that the curriculum is good

2.Student's opinion regarding the syllabus and teaching methods.

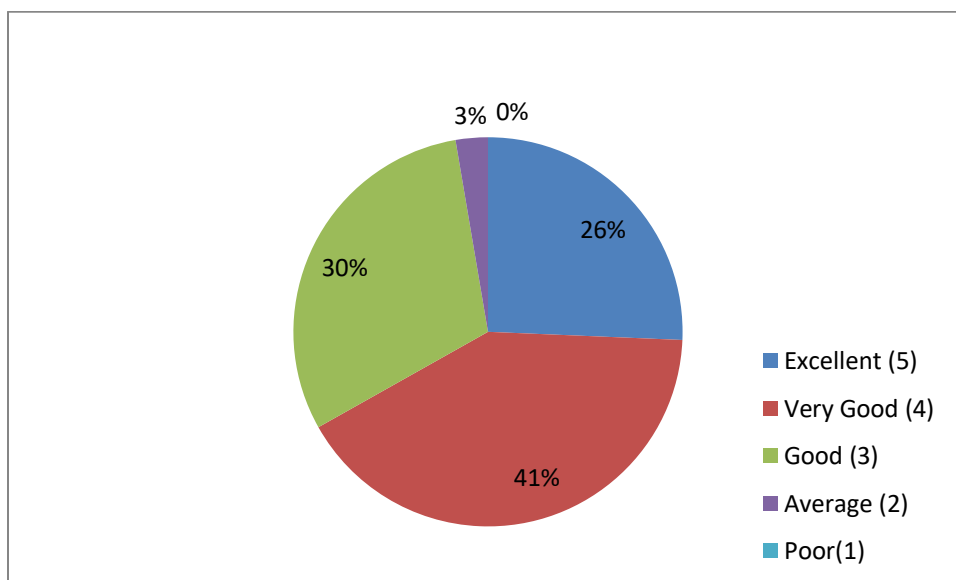

Interpretation: 42% of the students believe that the teaching methods adopted is excellent, 41% believe that the methods adopted are very good , 15% believe that the methods adopted are good and 2% believe it to be average

3. Student's opinion regarding usefulness of the choice of electives (open) in providing for employability skills& soft skills.

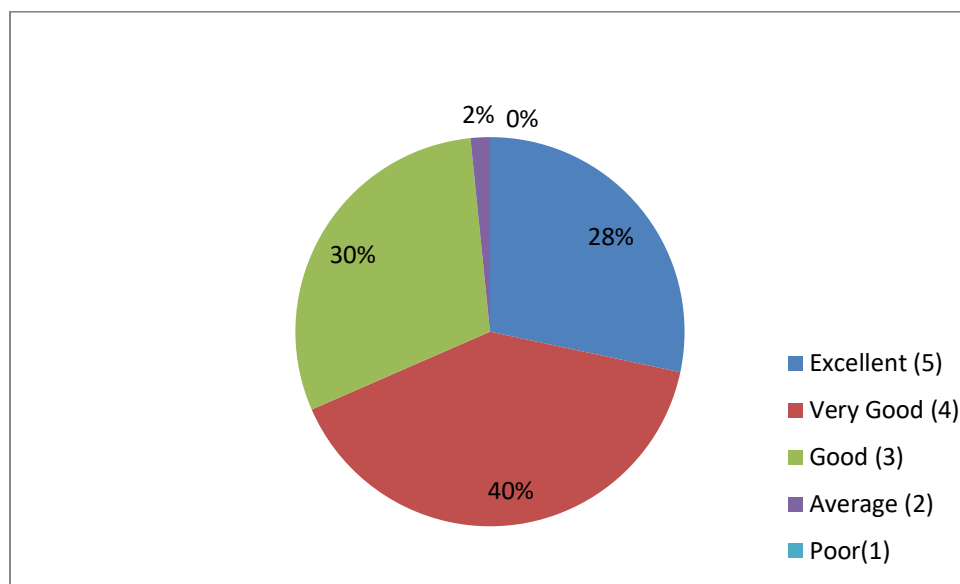

Interpretation: 26% of the students are of the opinion that the choice of electives & open courses is beneficial for them and remaining 36% are of the opinion that the choice of electives & open is very good and 29% rated it as good while 8% rated it as average, 1% rated it as poor.

4. Student's opinion regarding the Relevance and Appropriateness of the units prescribed in the curriculum

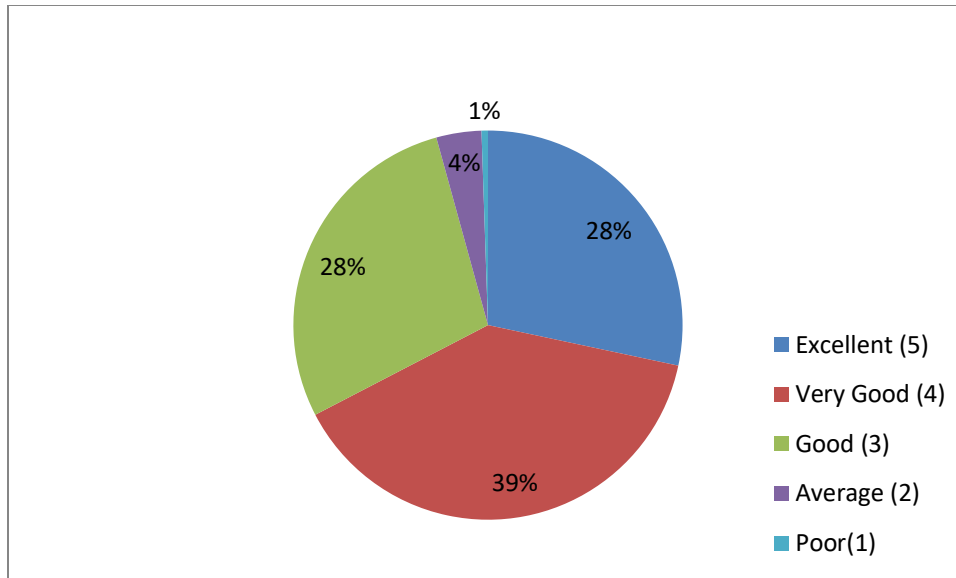

Interpretation: 26% of students are of the opinion that the units prescribed in the curriculum are relevant and appropriate, 41% are of the opinion that curriculum has very good relevance, 30% rated as having good influence on class..and remaining 3% rated the aspect as average

5. Student's opinion regarding the allocation of credits to the courses

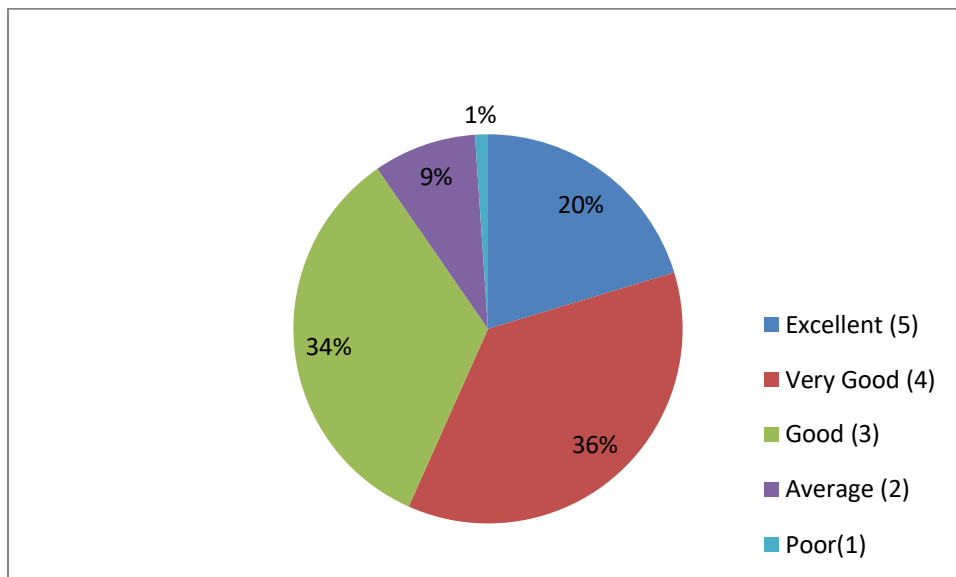

Interpretation: 68% of students are of the opinion that the allocation of credits to the courses is efficient and transparent and remaining 30% believe that allocation of credits is good and remaining 2% rated the aspect as average

6. Student's opinion regarding the regular updation of Syllabus to meet the demand of the students

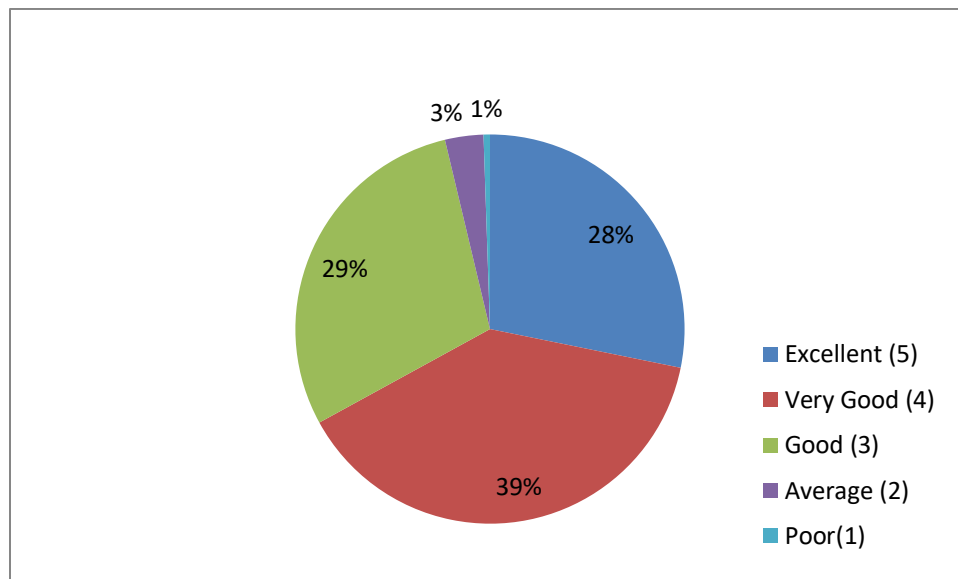

Interpretation: 67% of students are of the opinion that updation of Syllabus meet their demand very good and 28% think that the updation is good , and 4% think that the updation is average, and 1% think that the updation is poor

7. Student's opinion regarding the size of the syllabus in terms of load on them

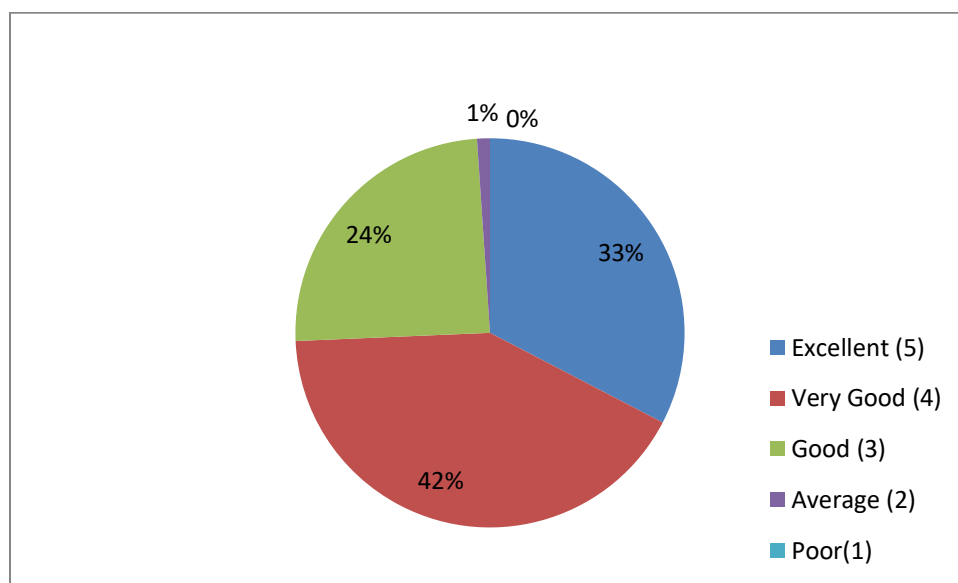

Interpretation: 56% of the students are of the opinion that the size of the syllabus in terms of load on them are well balanced & integrated and remaining 34% are of the opinion that the practical and theoretical size of syllabus are composed good and remaining 9% rated it average, and remaining 1% rated it poor.

8. Student's opinion regarding the Evaluation scheme designed for each course

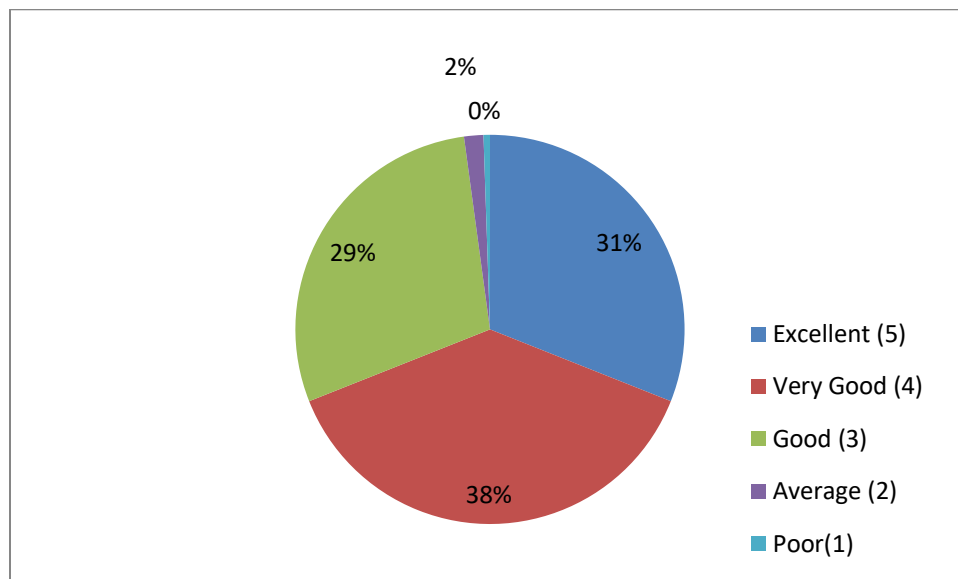

Interpretation: 67% of the students are adequately satisfied with current evaluation scheme, 29% believes that the Evaluation scheme is good and proper, 3% believes the scheme is average and 1% rated it as poor

9. Student's rating of the Course Objective/ Program Objective

Interpretation: 75% of students rated the objectives as excellent and the remaining 24% opined that the objectives are good, 1% rated it as average

10. Student's opinion regarding the institutional implementation of the curriculum

Interpretation: 69% of the students opined the institutional implementation of the curriculum as excellent, 29% believes that implementation of the curriculum is good and 2% rated average.

11. Student's suggestions for the enhancement of curriculum

Inference: The college through successful implementation of curriculum made advances in improving the academic atmosphere of the college. The college hopes that the dynamic and inclusive curriculum merged with the untiring efforts of the Teaching staff and the whole hearted support of the student community will enable the college to scale greater heights of excellence. May this temple of learning shed its light for many years to come.

SES College strives to impart the ideas and values provided in the curriculum as dictated by the Kannur University. For the successful and effective implementation of the curriculum it is essential to have an understanding of the impact of the curriculum among the various stakeholders especially students. To gather the views of the students regarding the curricular inculcation and its effective implementation, annual feedback is collected from all the students. The feedback thus containing the observations, anxieties, suggestions etc are collected and analysed and the overall output is used for improving the effectiveness of curricular implementation at the institutional level. An awareness of the students feedback enables us to figure out the aspects in curricular implementation which requires modifications. It also helps the teachers to ensure the design of curriculum in an effective manner during their participation at the curricular restructuring process.

As per the collected responses of the year 2018-19, Almost all students are satisfied with the curriculum, in its diverse aspects: curricular objectives in enhancing their competencies , teaching methods adopted, the choice of electives & open courses, relevance of units in the curriculum, transparency of allocating credits to the courses etc. The students shared mixed opinion that updation of Syllabus meet their demand ,the size of the syllabus in terms of load on them as well balanced & integrated. The students are satisfied with current evaluation scheme as good and proper. The institutional implementation of the curriculum as excellent a few believes that there is still room for improvement

A few have suggested certain modifications

Shorten the length of curriculum

Improve interactive sessions with students to increase their communication and presentation skill& laboratory facilities

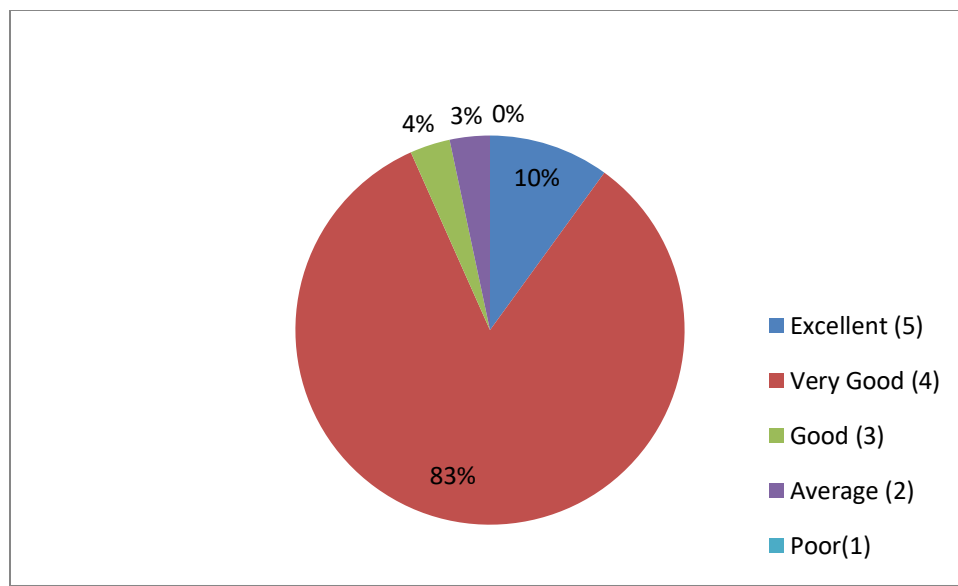

Coaching for competitive exams must be provided

Improve technological components, audio visual aids

Forwarded to the Staff council for considering & redressing the suggestions and grievances made

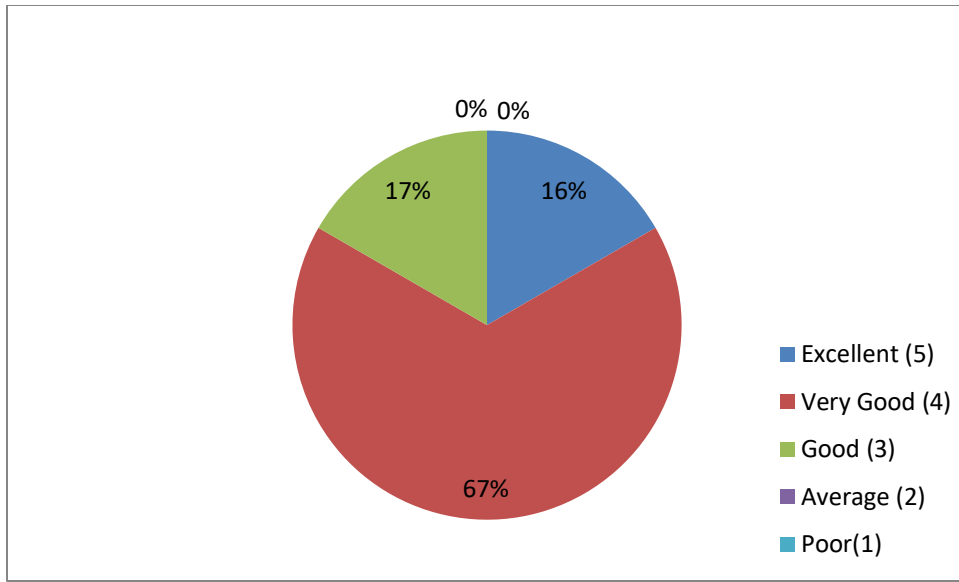

Curricular Evaluation by Teachers

1. Response of Teachers regarding the framework of curricular structure.

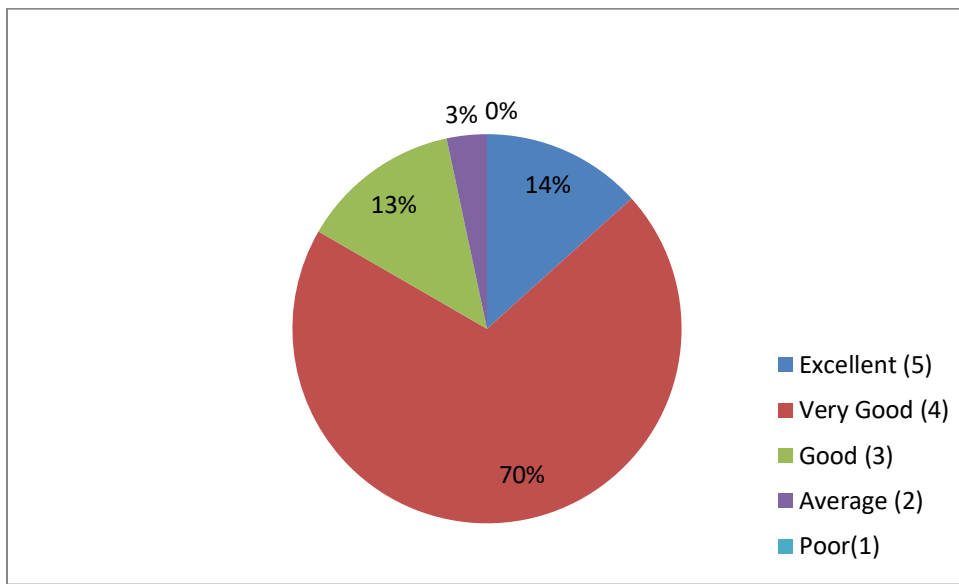

Interpretation: 83% of the teachers rated the curricular framework to be very good, 10% responded it to be excellent, and the rest 4% opted it to be good & 3% as average

2. Teacher's opinion regarding the appropriateness of the sequence of the courses offered .

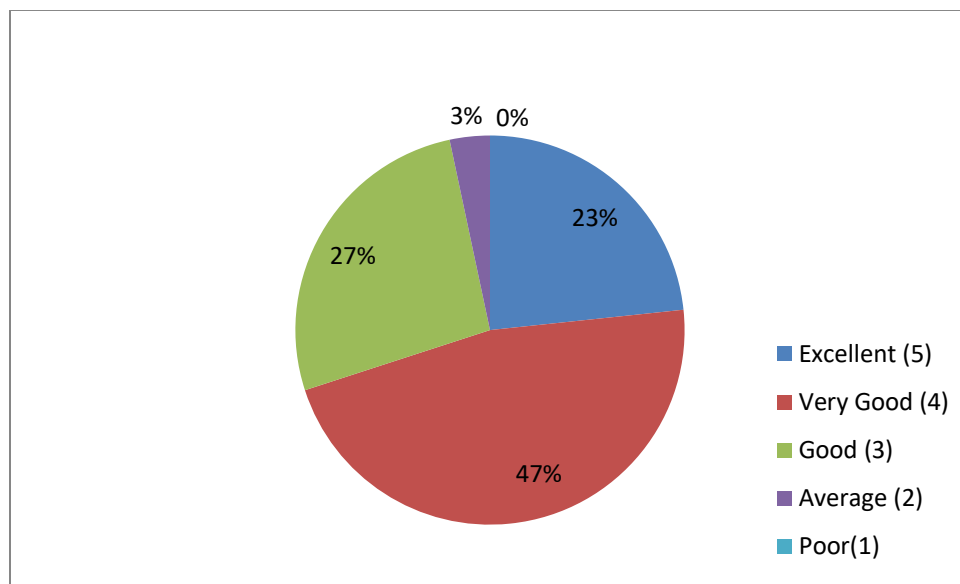

Interpretation: 83% of the teachers are satisfied with the sequence of courses, 17% are of the view that there is room for improvement

3. Teacher's opinion regarding the depth of the syllabus for the course in relation to the competencies expected.

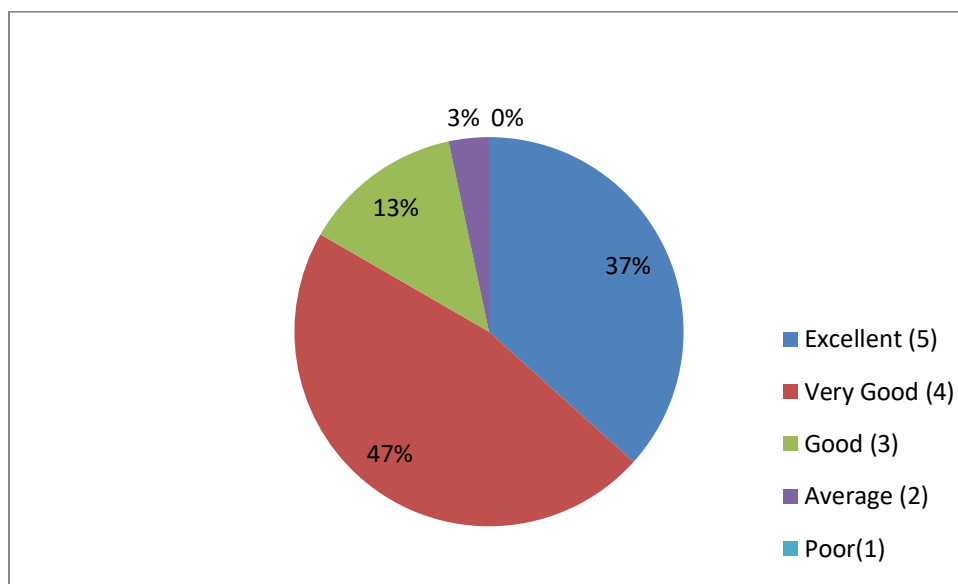

Interpretation: 84% of the teachers believe that the depth of the syllabus is compatible to the learning competencies of student, 13% believes the syllabus is beneficial for them and remaining 3% is satisfied with depth of syllabus

4. Teacher's opinion regarding the distribution of credits to the course

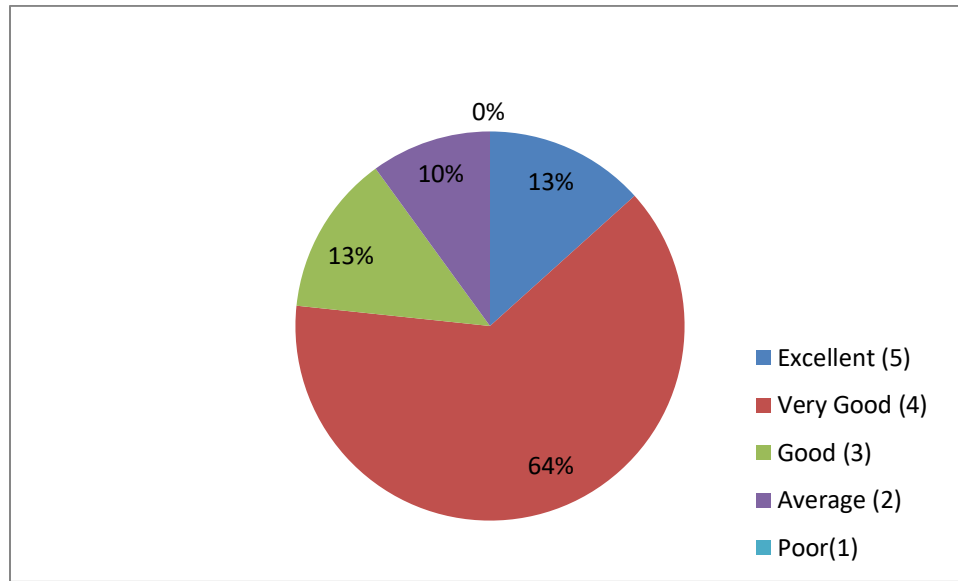

Interpretation: 70% of teachers rate distribution of credits to be very good, 27% consider it to be well structured & fair, while 3% of teachers feels the credit distribution to be average

5. Teacher's opinion regarding the relevance and appropriateness of texts and reference materials

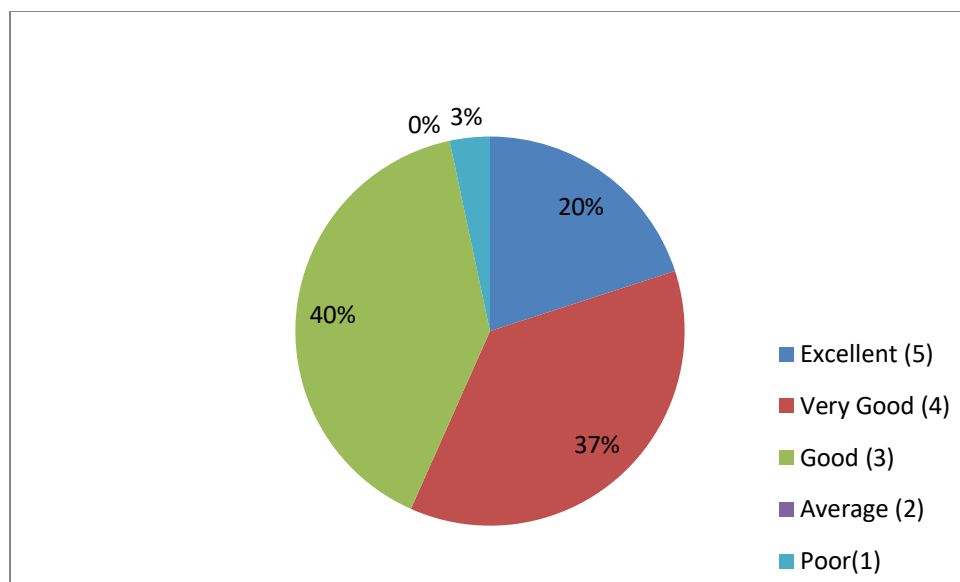

Interpretation: 47% of teachers rated Very good on the relevance of reference materials 37% opined it to be excellent while 13% of teachers considers the relevance as good and 3% rated it as satisfactory

6. Teacher's opinion regarding the curriculum in catering to the need of the society and professional development

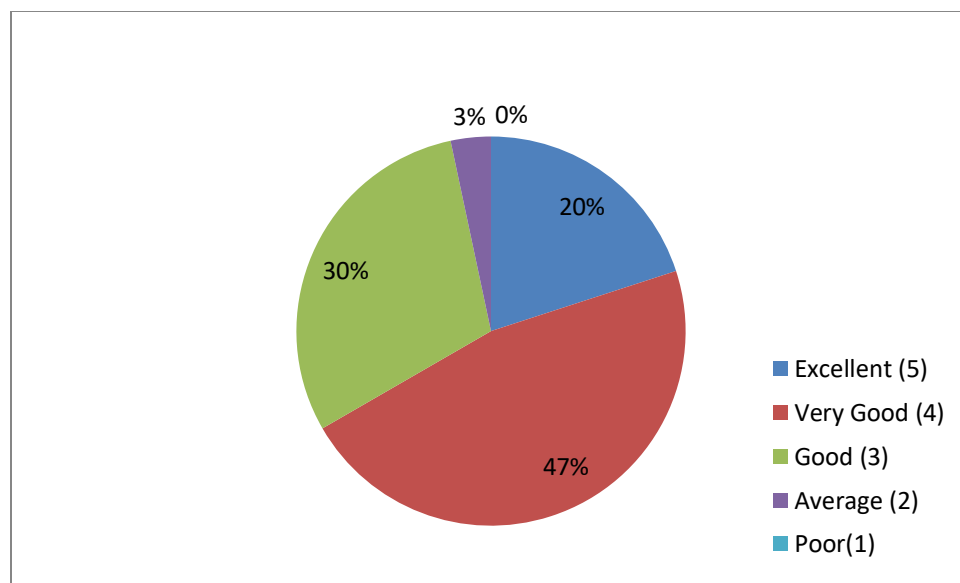

Interpretation: 77% of teachers believes that curriculum caters to the need of the society ,13% believes the curriculum is really efficient in serving it purpose & 10% thinks curriculum is average in this aspect

7. Teacher's opinion regarding the syllabus content for courses in terms of load on them and students..

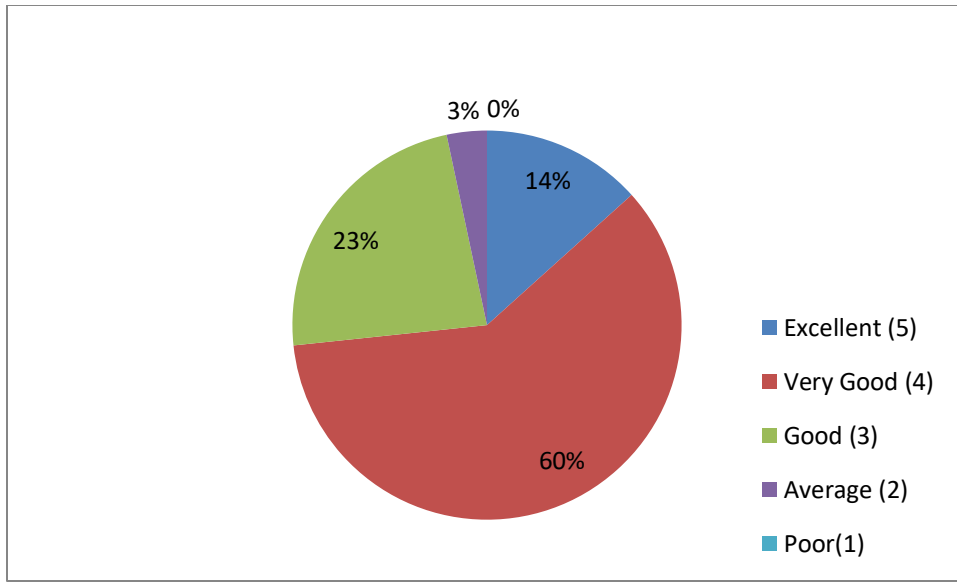

Interpretation: 57% of the teachers are of the opinion that the syllabus content is balanced in terms of load on them and students..40% believe that content is well contained and 3% opined that to be poor

8. Teacher's opinion on the contribution of curriculum in terms of broadening the perspective and career opportunity of students..

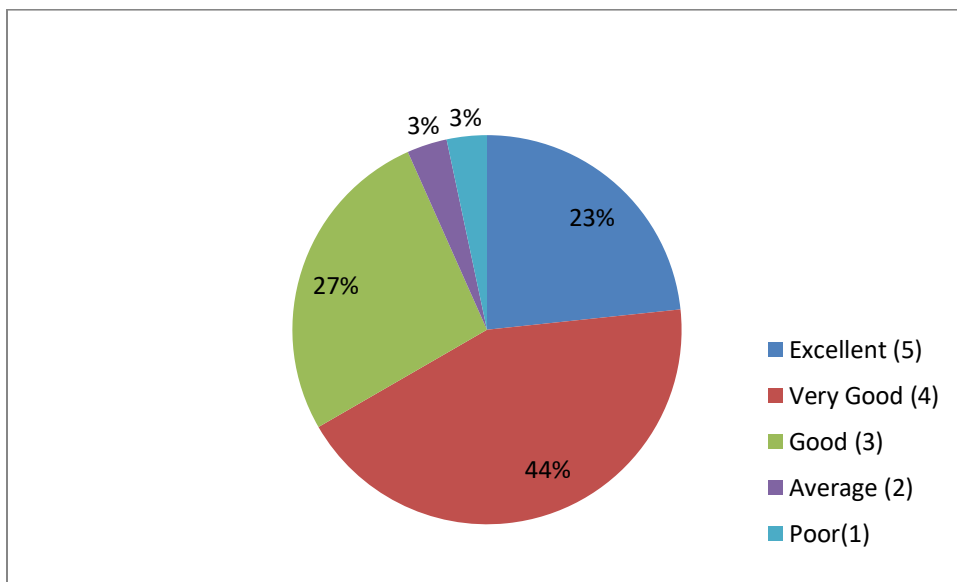

Interpretation: 67% of the teachers believe that the curriculum contributes efficiently in broadening the perspective and career opportunity of students 30% believe that the contribution of curriculum is good and 3% believe it to be average

9. Teacher's rating of the Potential of the students in understanding course objectives

Interpretation: 60% of teachers rate the Potential of the students in understanding course objectives to be very good, 14% teachers rate the Potential to be excellent and 23% consider it to be good. 3% rated it to be average.

10. Teacher's opinion regarding the Choice of Elective/optional papers

Interpretation: 44% of the teachers are of the opinion that the Choice of Elective/optional papers is Very Good, 23% believes it to be excellent in its aspects & 27% believes it to be good. 3% rated it poor another 3% rated it average

11. Teacher's Suggestions & Observations to improve the overall quality of the curriculum

Inference: Teachers are satisfied to a great extent with the curriculum, keeping in mind the best interest of the students, some faculties have suggested certain modifications. The college through successful implementation of curriculum made advancements in curricular implementation thus improving the academic atmosphere of the college. The college hopes that the vibrant and inclusive curriculum merged with the untiring efforts of the Teaching staff and the support of the student community will enable the college to scale greater heights of excellence.

For the successful and effective implementation of the curriculum, it is essential to have an understanding of the impact of the curriculum among the various stakeholders especially teachers. To gather the views of the teachers regarding the curricular implementation, annual feedback is collected from all the teachers. The feedback is collected and analysed and the overall output is used for improving the effectiveness of curricular implementation at the institutional level. An awareness of the teachers' feedback enables us to figure out the aspects in curricular implementation which require modifications. It also helps the teachers to ensure the design of curriculum in an effective manner during their participation at the curricular restructuring process.

As per the collected responses of the year 2018-19, Almost all teachers are satisfied with the curriculum, in its diverse aspects: framework of curricular structure, depth of the syllabus, credits to the courses, relevance of reference materials, Choice of Elective/optional papers, etc. The teachers shared mixed opinion that professional development, career opportunity of students, load on them and students as balanced & integrated. The teachers are generally satisfied with current evaluation scheme. The institutional implementation of the curriculum is excellent; a few believe that there is still room for improvement.

A few have suggested certain modifications

To provide more elective papers.

Inclusion of skill enhancement component

Syllabus should be flexible to suit to the time availability of the semester system.

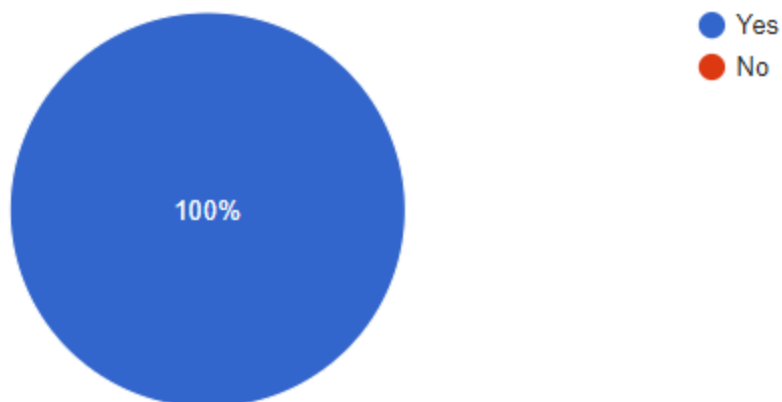

To give more importance to professional development in curriculum

Need more equipments to make students fit for their practicals

Forwarded to the Staff council for considering & redressing the suggestions and grievances made

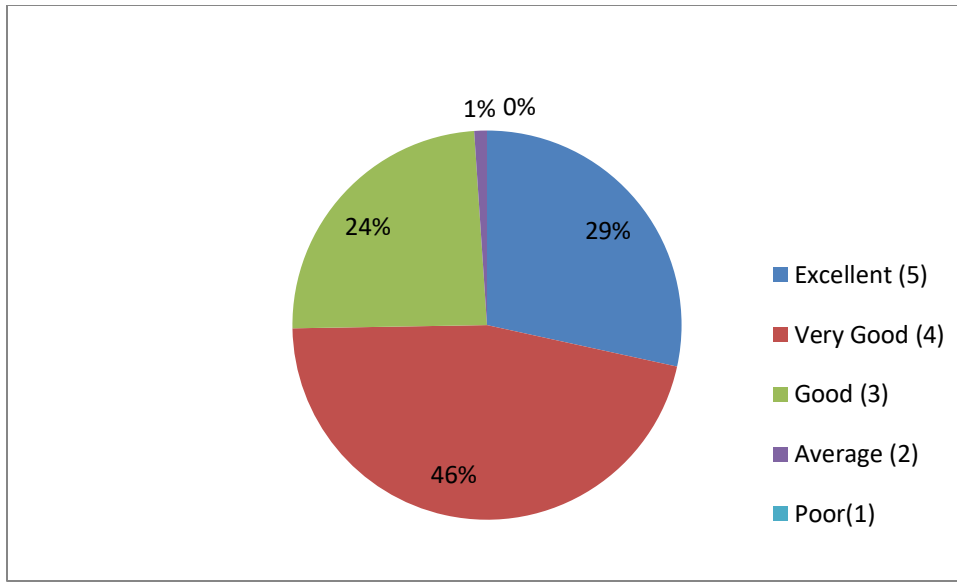

Curricular Evaluation by Alumni

1.Alumni response to values imparted through the curriculum

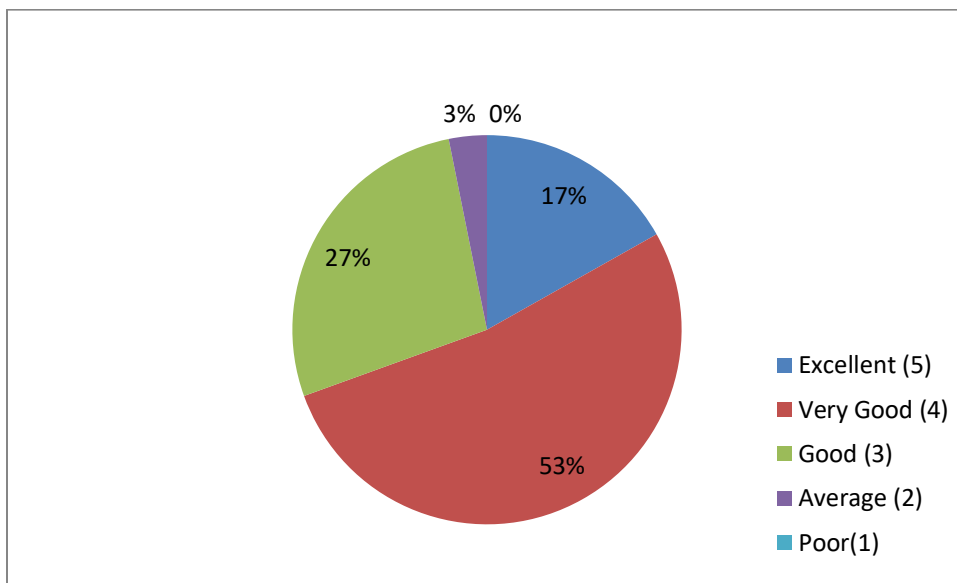

Interpretation: Alumnis believe that the values imparted through the curriculum have helped them in the walks of life .

2. Alumni's opinion regarding the adequateness of the courses offered in the program.

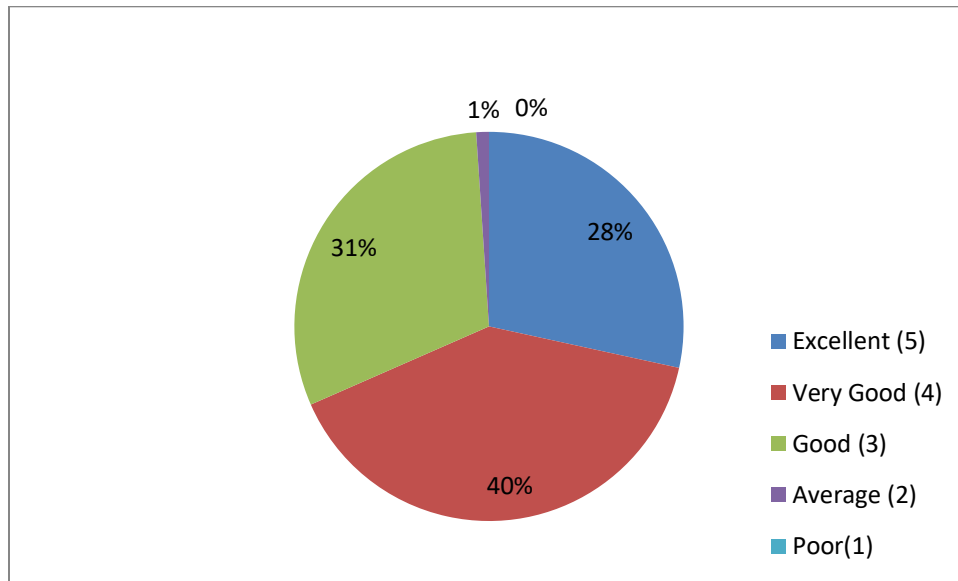

Interpretation: 46% of the Alumni are satisfied with the choice of course offered and its adequateness, 29% rated it to be Excellent while 24% believe that it is good and the remaining 1% rated average

3. Alumni's opinion regarding the efficiency of the syllabus content in enabling to face aspects of life

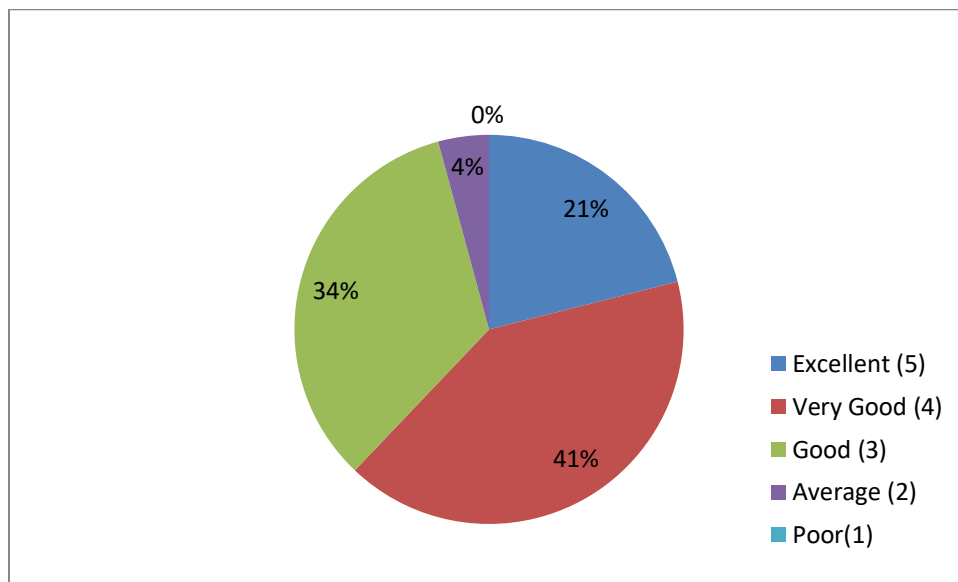

Interpretation: 53% of the alumni are of the opinion that the syllabus content is really efficient, 17% opts it to be excellent and 27% believes it to be satisfactory. 3% opts it to be average

4. Alumni's opinion regarding the relevance of the curriculum in relation to your current professional standards

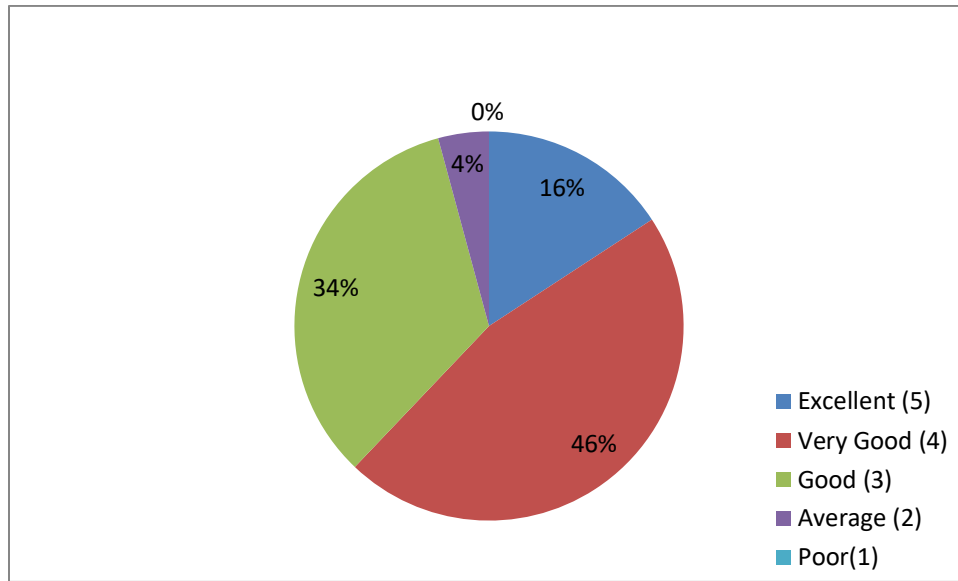

Interpretation: 28% of alumni have really high opinion about the relevance of the curriculum in relation to professional standards, 40% rated relevance of the curriculum very good and 31% are of the opinion that relevance of the curriculum is just satisfactory and 1% rated it average

5. Alumni's opinion regarding the skills acquired from the curriculum for practical exposure in life

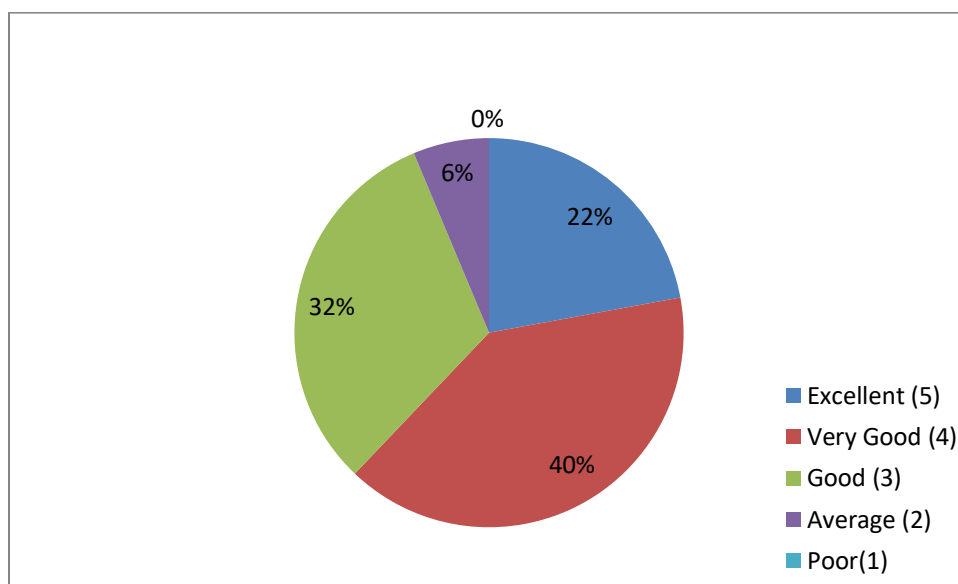

Interpretation: 41% of alumni are of the opinion that skills acquired from the curriculum is very good, 21% rates skills acquired from the curriculum is excellent, 34% are of the opinion that the skills acquired are good, and remaining 4% have an average opinion on the skills acquired

6. Alumni's opinion regarding the choice of electives in providing competence in employability skills& soft skills

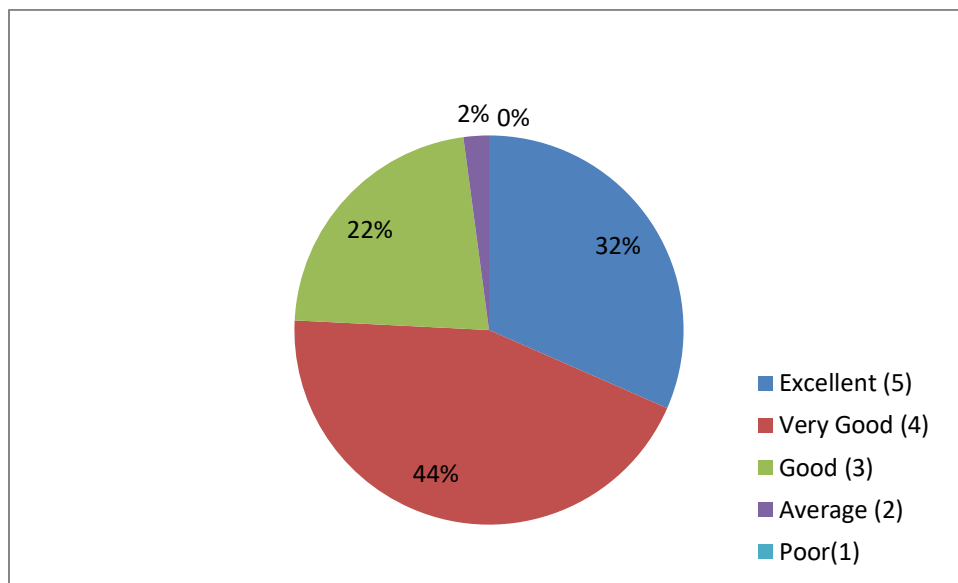

Interpretation: 46% of alumni are of the opinion that choice of electives offered will help in promoting competence in skills and 16% believe that it is excellent and remaining 34% are of the opinion that it is good and remaining 4% believe that it is average

7. Alumni's opinion regarding the design of syllabus for self learning

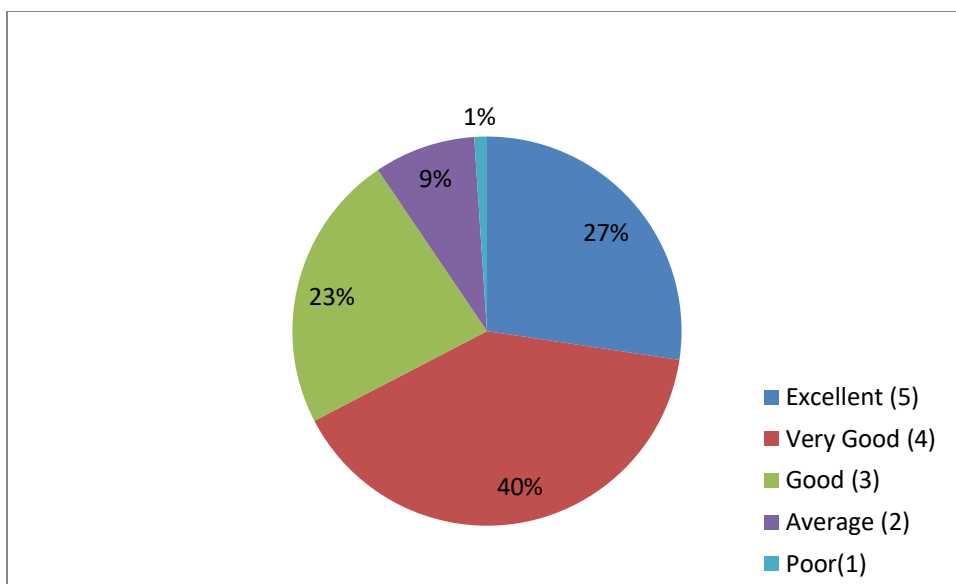

Interpretation: 40% of the alumni are of the opinion that syllabus is very good in inculcating & promoting self learning, 22% rated it to be excellent, 32% considers it to be satisfactory and remaining 6% are of the opinion that the syllabus rates Average in promoting self learning

8. Alumni's opinion regarding the competence and support offered by the institution for the overall development of the students.

Interpretation: 44% of the alumni are of the opinion that the institution efficiently supports the students, 32% believes that the offered by the institution is proper and excellent, 22% rates the support to be good and the remaining 2% are of the opinion that the support is satisfactory

9. Alumni's rating of the Curriculum enhances various co- curricular activities Sports and Arts meets at University levels

Interpretation: 27% of alumni are of the opinion that curriculum is adequate to perform well in various co- curricular activities , 40% considers this aspect to be very good,23% opines this to be good and 9% rated the aspect to be average while the remaining 1% alumni are of the opinion that curricular support is poor in this aspect.

10. Alumni's Suggestions & Observations to improve the overall quality of the curriculum

Inference: Alumnis are satisfied with the curriculum, still a few suggestions have been made to improve it's effectiveness keeping in mind the best interest of the students, some Alumni have suggested certain modifications. The college through successful implementation of curriculum made strides of progress, improving the academic atmosphere of the college. The college hopes that the self-motivated and inclusive curriculum will definitely enable the college to scale greater heights of excellence. The College endeavors to impart the ideas and values provided in the curriculum as dictated by the Kannur University. For the successful and effective implementation of the curriculum it is essential to have an understanding of the impact of the curriculum among the various stakeholders especially its past students who have a thorough understanding of the college and its policy implementations. To gather the views of the Alumni regarding the curricular implementation, annual feedback is collected from all the Alumni. The feedback are collected and analysed and the overall output is used for improving the effectiveness of curricular implementation at the institutional level. An awareness of the Alumni feedback enables us to figure out the aspects in curricular implementation at the institutional level which requires modifications. It also helps the teachers to ensure the design of curriculum in an effective manner and the institution for its effective implementation.

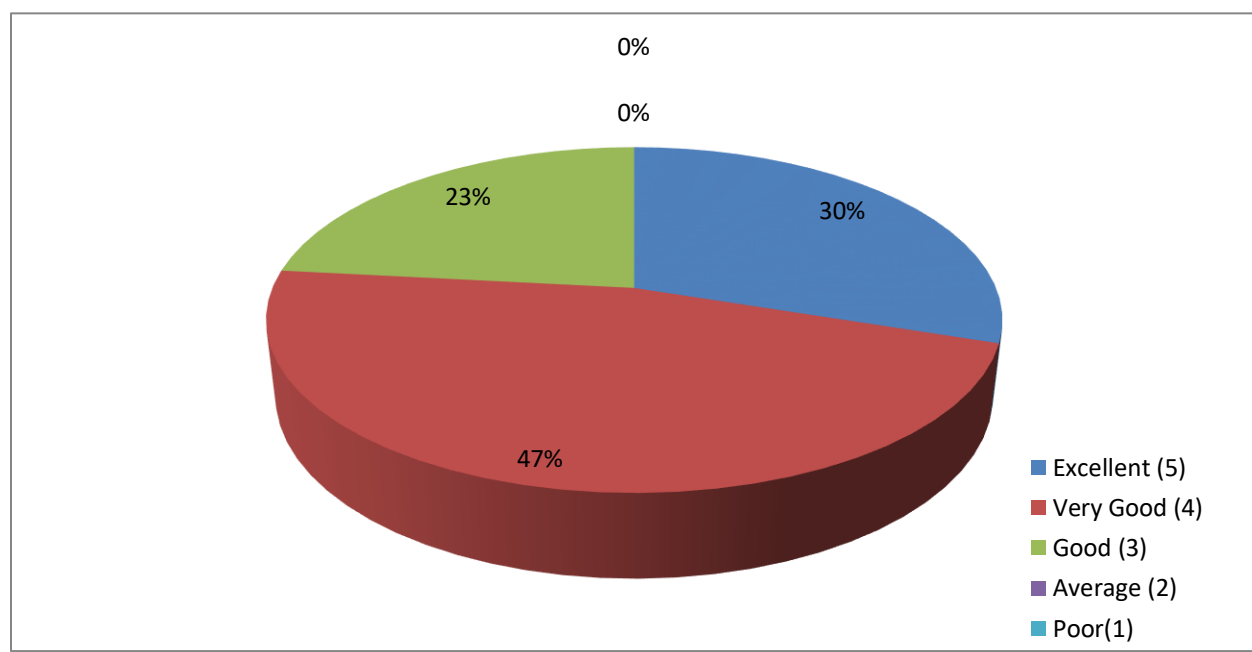

As per the collected responses of the year 2018-19, Almost all Alumni are satisfied with the curriculum, in its diverse aspects: values imparted, adequateness of the courses offered, efficiency and relevance of the syllabus content, skills acquired, choice of electives, , etc. The Alumni shared mixed opinion that design of syllabus for self learning, competence and support offered by the institution, enhances various co- curricular activities .The Alumni are generally satisfied with current evaluation scheme. The institutional implementation of the curriculum as excellent a few believes that there is still room for improvement

A few have suggested certain modifications

Add career guidance to the curriculum

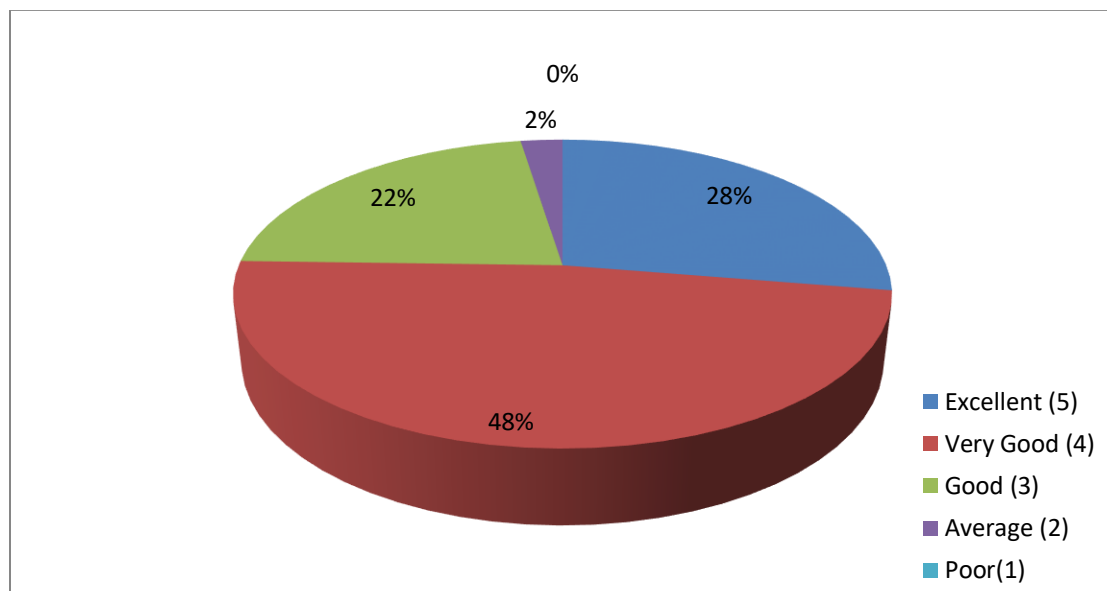

Curricular evaluation by Parents

1. The curriculum meets your expected objectives

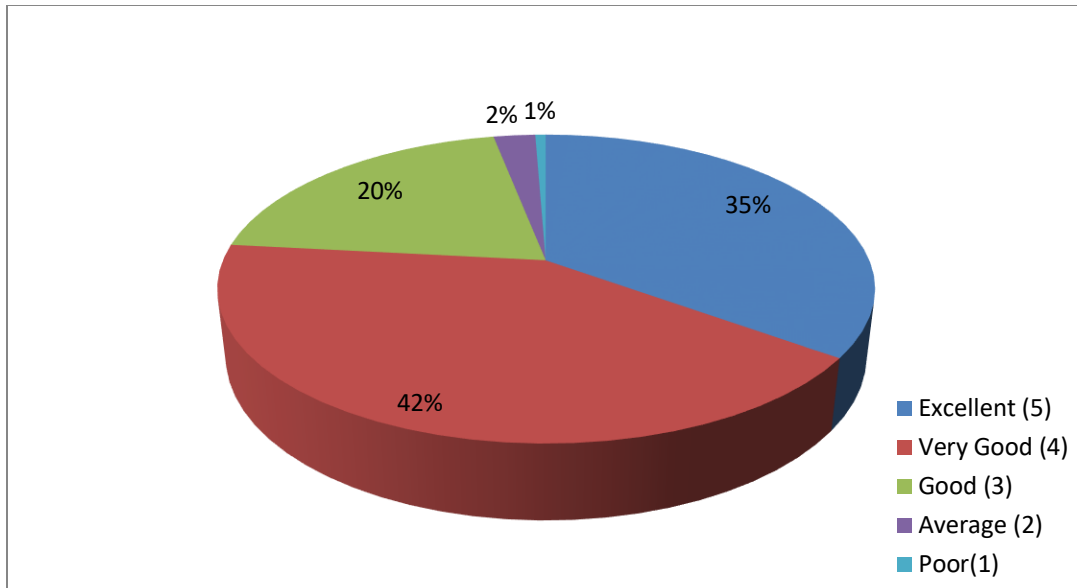

Interpretation: All the parents who participated in the survey responded positively that the curriculum designed for all programme ensures the suitability of the programme. 30% rated excellent in meeting their expectations, 47% responded very good and 23% stated it to be satisfactory

2. Syllabus is efficient to meet the academic demand of my children

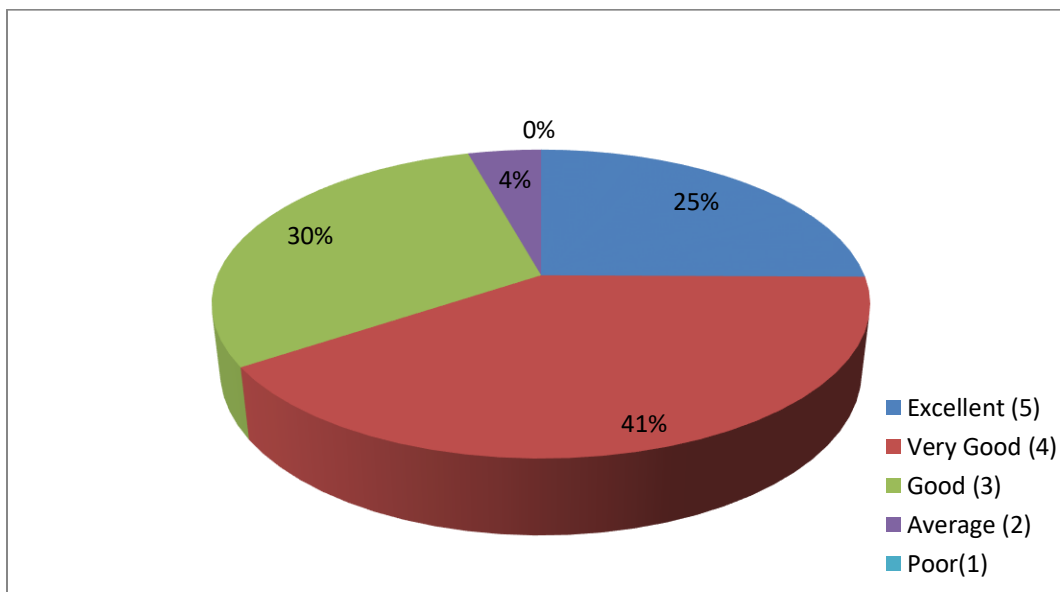

Interpretation: More than 75% of the parents agrees that the syllabus is effective in meeting the academic transaction. 22% rated that the syllabus through open courses allow their children to integrate other disciplines to their programme. The remaining 2% responses rated this as average.

3. How will you assess syllabus and teaching methods used

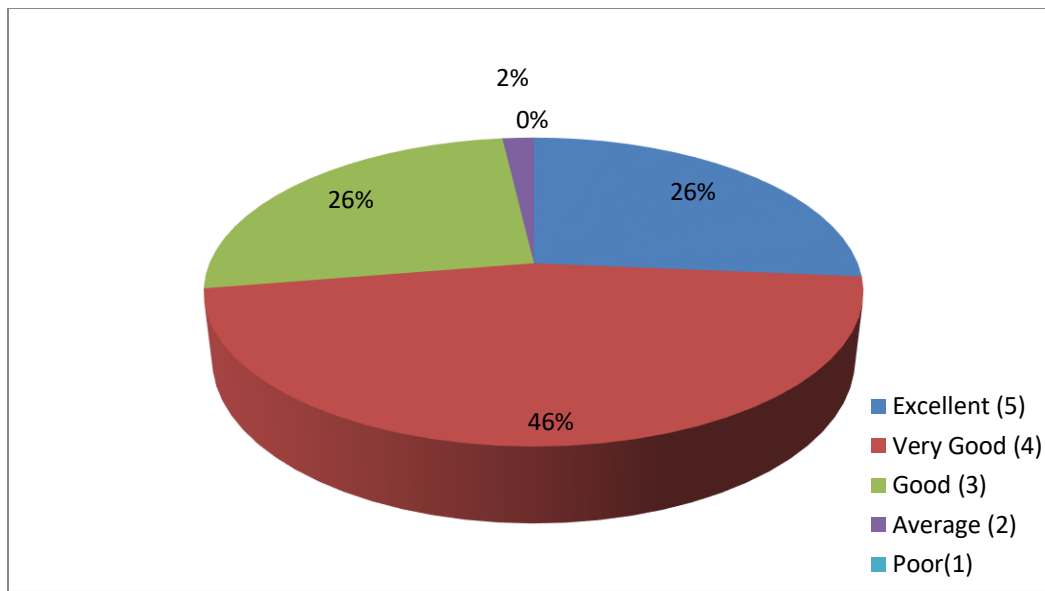

Interpretation: Assessment of 77% of the parents who participated in the survey agrees that the syllabus and teaching methods implemented are very good. 20% rated it as good, 2% of parents stated the methods are average and remaining 1% considers it to be poor.

4. The curriculum enhances competencies of my child/children.

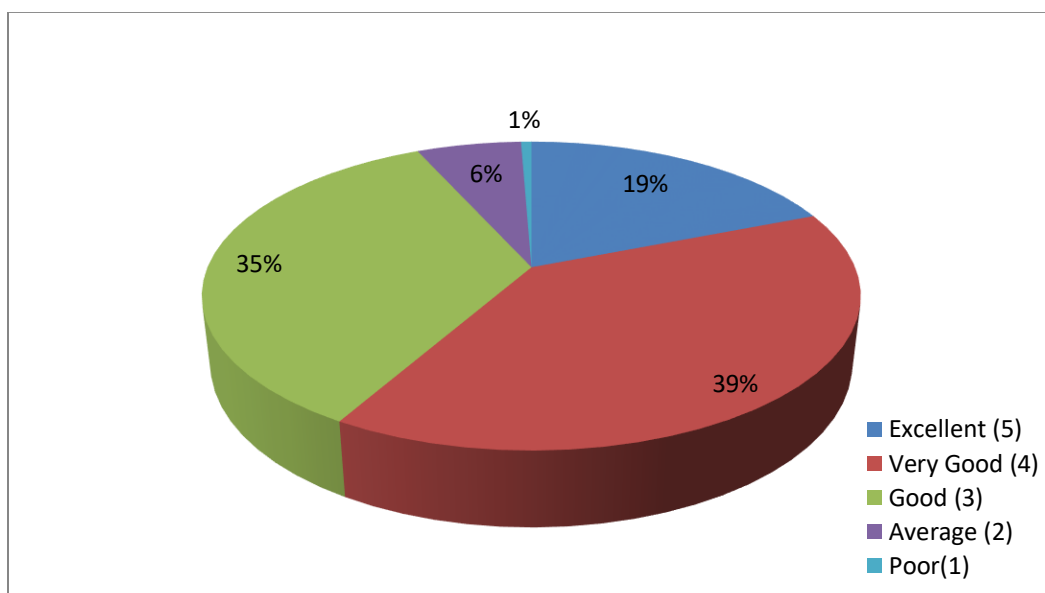

Interpretation: More than 90% of the parents says that curriculum enhances competencies of the students and 4% of parents considered it as average in the field of Curricular enhancement.

5. Relevance of the values imparted through the curriculum

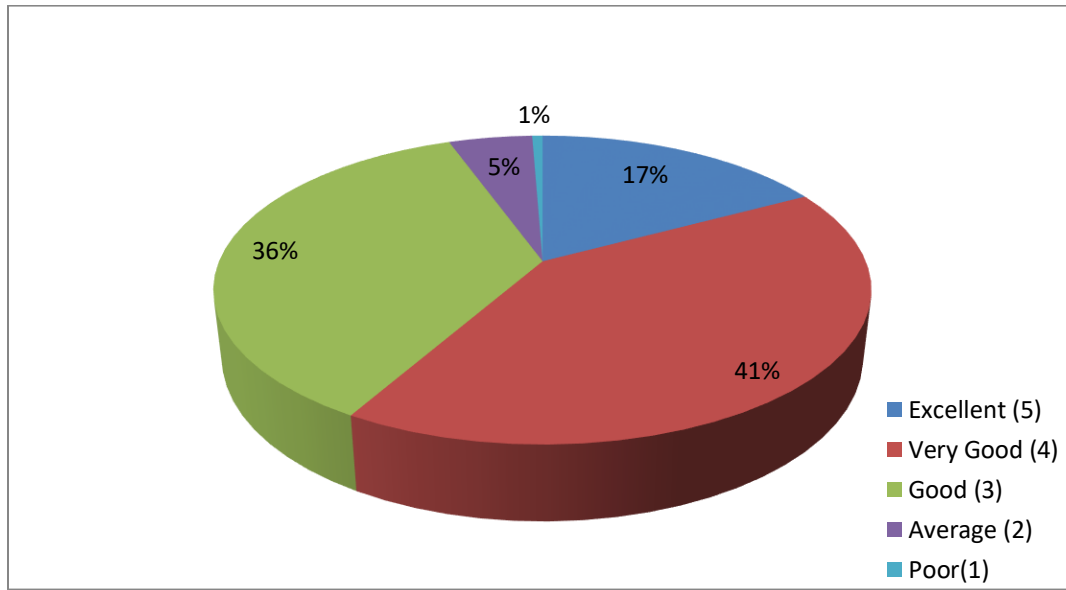

Interpretation: 98% of parents are of the opinion that the values inculcated through the curriculum has an impact on the students. It aids them to be better individuals, to have an understanding of the world around and enables building team spirit. While 2% parents rated the values as average influence on students.

6. Curriculum improves employability & soft skills of my child/children

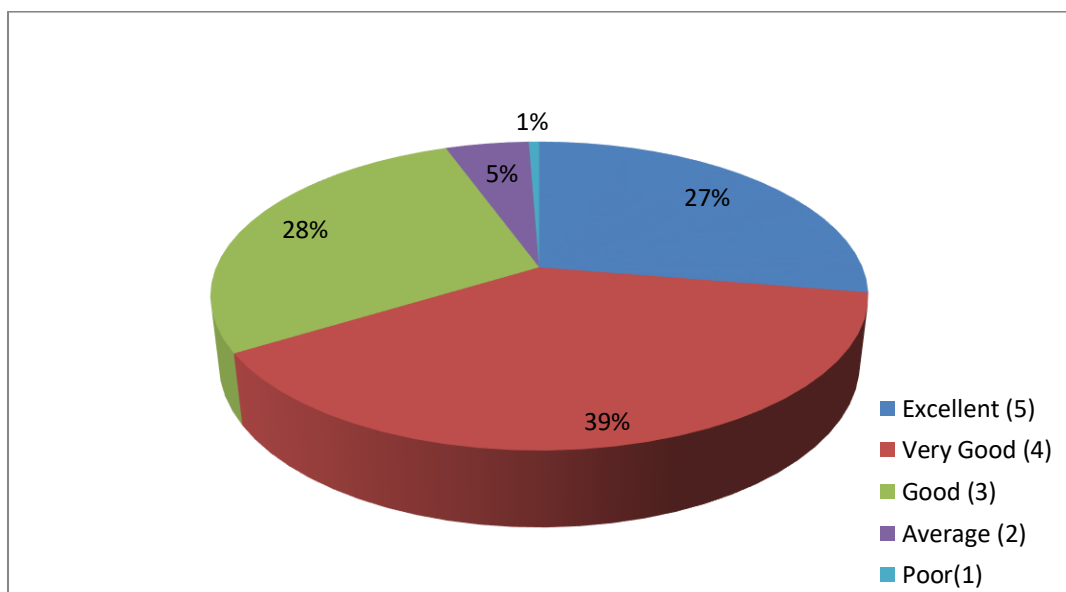

Interpretation: 58% of parents believe that the curriculum improves soft skills and points out that much focus be paid on having a career oriented approach, 35% rates it as good, while 6% parents consider this aspect as average and 1% rated this criteria to be poor.

7. The workload on the children as per syllabus content

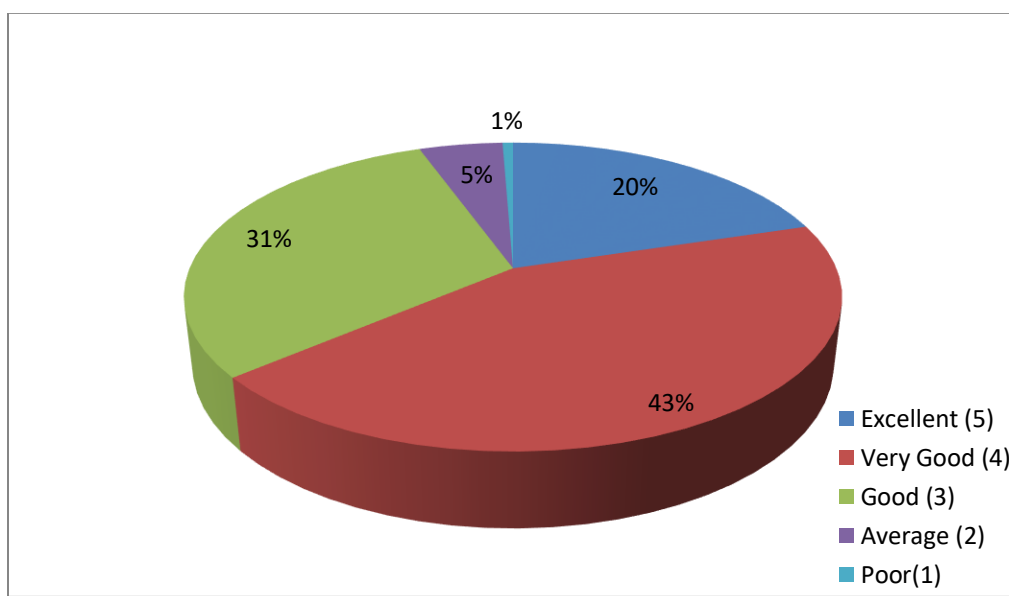

Interpretation: 94% of the parents opined that the workload on the children as per syllabus content is properly balanced. Suggested integrating the theoretical and practical knowledge. 5% of parents says the workload is not well balanced and gave it an average rating and 1% consider this balance to be poor.

8. Rate the efficiency of the syllabus content in benefitting the children

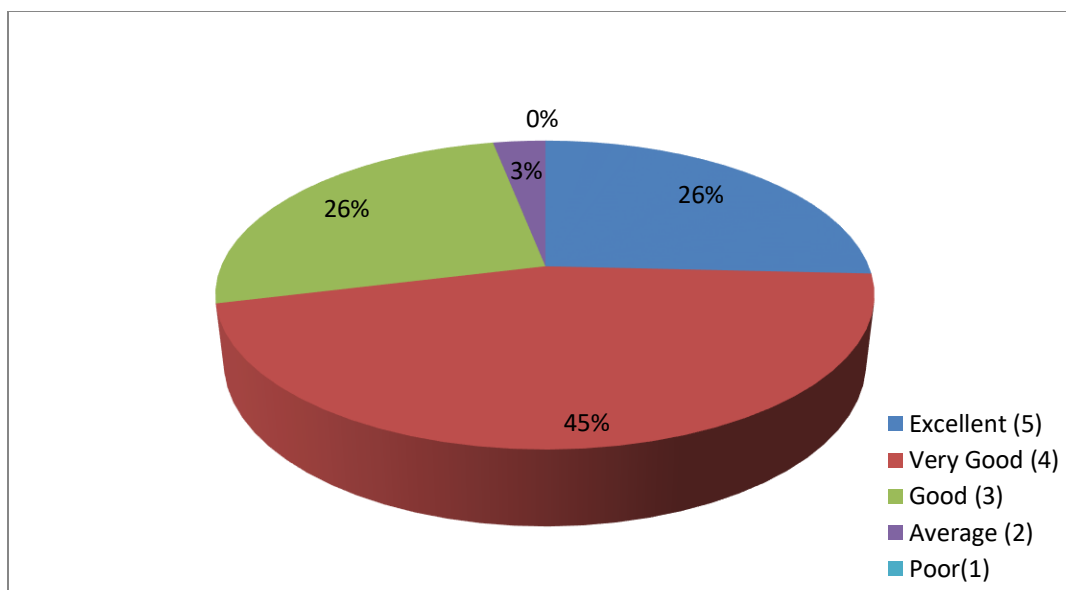

Interpretation: More than 90% of the parents believe that the syllabus is adequately equipped in benefitting the children. It enables their children to be more organised with his/her work and do things in an orderly manner. 5% parents believes that the syllabus is partially equipped and 1% rated it to be poor.

9. Appropriateness of curriculum in enabling my child to face other aspects in life

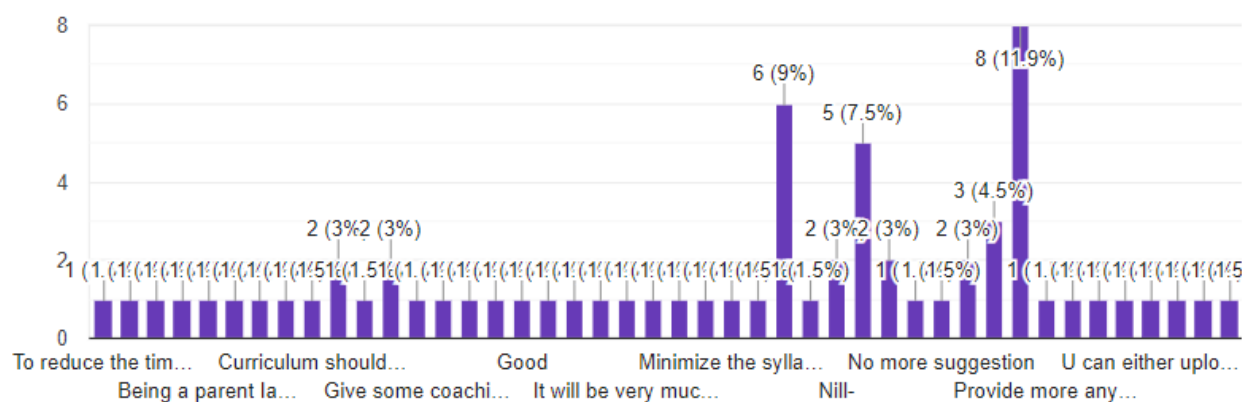

Interpretation: 63% of parents are of the opinion that the curriculum is effective in enabling students to face various aspects in life. 31% consider this aspect as satisfactory and hence rated it good. Remaining 5% rated it average, 1% rated it poor.

10. Assess institutional implementation of the curriculum

Interpretation: 97% of the parents are of the opinion that the institutional implementation of the curriculum is well and proper. 3% of parents believe there is still room for improvement and rated this aspect as average.

11. Constructive suggestions for improving the curriculum

Inference: Parents are satisfied with the curriculum, still a few suggestions have been made to improve it's effectiveness keeping in mind the best interest of the students, some Parents have suggested certain modifications. The college through successful implementation of curriculum made strides of progress, improving the academic atmosphere of the college. The college hopes that the dynamic and inclusive curriculum will definitely enable the college to scale greater heights of excellence. The College endeavors to impart the ideas and values provided in the curriculum as dictated by the Kannur University. For the successful and effective implementation of the curriculum it is essential to have an understanding of the impact of the curriculum among the various stakeholders especially the Parent community. To gather the views of the Parents regarding the curricular implementation, annual feedback is collected from all the Parents. The feedback are collected and analysed and the overall output is used for improving the effectiveness of curricular implementation at the institutional level. An awareness of the Parents feedback enables us to figure out the aspects in curricular implementation at the institutional level which requires modifications. It also helps the formulation of policy at institutional level to ensure the transaction of curriculum efficiently As per the collected responses of the year 2018-19, Almost all Parents are satisfied with the curriculum, in its diverse aspects: meeting expected academic objectives, adopting suitable teaching methods, efficiency of the syllabus content in enhancement of student competencies, etc. Parents shared mixed opinion on improvement of employability & soft skills, and workload on students,. The Parents are generally satisfied with current evaluation scheme. The institutional implementation of the curriculum is considered excellent, still a few believes that there is still room for improvement.

A few have suggested certain modifications

Upload subject videos

Coaching for competitive examinations

Forwarded to the staff council for considering & redressing the suggestions and grievances made